Broken Connection (Ripley Marsh Trilogy Book 3)

Synopsis

Winter is upon Witch Creek and Ripley has never been more stir crazy in her life. The barns are empty, her summer co-workers are gone and the cold has become intolerable. She would do anything to escape. She receives assistance from an unlikely source when Tap Out is pointed toward a major stakes race in Florida--and a showdown with one of his rivals. As part of the deal, Ripley is to take up a position as Tap Out's exercise rider due to their connection. However, Tap Out is not her only reason for heading south. It has been two months since her last biting encounter with Keller and she's ready to end the freeze. Now her trip to Florida isn't just about proving herself as a rider. It's about getting Keller back in her corner before it's too late. Runaway, a standalone novel involving some of the same characters from the Ripley Marsh Trilogy, is now available for purchase. *ALSO AVAILABLE:Crossed Lines

Customer Reviews

This trilogy has recently become my life!!! It makes me so happy to read this, and I love Ripley and all the characters because I am exactly like Ripley in every single way. If I find out there's a continuation to this trilogy I'm going to have a f*cking heart attack. I waited day in and night out for this book to be released and was NOT disappointed by any of it. I really hope you continue this series, even though it's supposed to be a trilogy!! Keep writing!

I consider this a 5 star novel because it has depth. Good job. It is a novel that pulls you right in.

This trilogy has been a progression for both the author and the characters. The author really brought it all home and I still got my happy ending and a promise of more to come.

A very good read.
