I love these Bob the Horse books. They have good stories, along with a spiritual lesson. Perfect size and length to hold a three year old's attention. Love this story.

My granddaughter loves horses & she was struggling with reading starting into the 1st grade. I got this for her on the Kindle Fire to encourage her to start reading for pleasure - not just because she has to. With the work the school put in with her and books like this about topics she really likes, she has now excelled in reading! Another plus are the values/morales these books teach - the children are presented with a situation where there is a right & a wrong... it follows their decisions in dealing with those situations & the final outcome based on those decisions well.

we love horses in our family. this book is great. my 5 year old thought it was the best book ever.

Bought for my 6 yr old daughter who is horse crazy. She loved it and has read it many times. I was thrilled with the book....loved that God had provided the "perfect" horse for each child. It was a blessing to see that God was not left out of this story.

I bought this book for my daughter Ellie, she is 7 years old, and she is horse crazy. Ellie really enjoyed this book, and she enjoys the stories about Bob the horse and the girl who cares for him and visits the , and the lessons that are taught through the story.

Our 6 year old 1st grade daughter loves horses and loves to read. Great books at her reading level!
Very cute horse books

Adorable books that are loved by the little girl I got them for but I don't like the subtle hints of Religiousness towards praying to god

I think this book will teach everybody a lesson to not bullie people and friends with who ever you want
