Honduras A Ras De Suelo (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

Honduras, un país donde asesinan a una mujer cada 20 horas; donde já venes sicarios ejecutan a los taxistas que no logran reunir las 20 mil lempiras que les exigen los extorsionadores; donde la policía puede matar a golpes a un adolescente acusado de complicidad de asesinato, y donde una embarcación que tan sólo lo transporta verduras y personas dormidas es acribillada a balazos al cruzarse con una operación antinarco. Un país de escuadrones de la muerte que, sin esperar el paso lento de la justicia, exterminan a bandas enteras de presuntos secuestradores, y en el que un precario hospital cada noche atiende hasta 20 heridos por disparos o machetazos. A un país con 20 muertos diarios a causa de la violencia y donde los políticos regalan ataúdes durante las campañas electorales, no es extraño que los periodistas lo hayan calificado como "el más violento del mundo". Alberto Arce da cuenta de esta guerra no declarada en una región de paso para el tráfico de cocaína, que involucra a pandilleros al servicio del narco, a una policía y un sistema judicial sin medios para enfrentarse a la criminalidad, a una clase política corrupta y a una prensa que justifica los crímenes de los escuadrones de la muerte.

4 stars because it opens the debate on such forgotten part of the world, which we use to remember only when a hurricane or a conflict sparks there. Not 5 stars because it fails to define and analyse the causes of this situation and treats all social and political actors, internal and external, in an undifferentiated manner, as if they bear the same level of responsibility in this chaos.

Everything was great.
