Dick Weissman was Associate Professor of Music and Music Industry Studies from 1990-2002 at the University of Colorado at Denver. He has published many books on music, notably The Music Business: Career Opportunities and Self-Defense, now in its third edition. He lives in Portland, OR.

Purchased the E book for one of my classes and I was very happy that I did that. The book was with me everywhere I went, I could just pull out my phone and read. The content was actually pretty good too. It really covered the history of the blues, spanning from the beginning til now.
