Customer Reviews

We loved the book!!! It's simple enough for children to enjoy and we made a game out of it finding the cat or the potato...we also played guessing game because each page has so many "every day items" that we can learn about clocks, paint, flowers, etc. I read it to them and they were mesmerized with the pictures. Now My daughter wants to read it to her younger brother same as I read it to them with all the fun and games. One of the things I loved best was the focus on the child in the story. Mommy loves ME ..it's reinforcing positive self esteem as you read it, very smart way to introduce this level of behavioral thinking at this age.

My son's favorite bedtime story! Love the nice moral lesson it presents. I've been looking for something like this for my kids. Can't wait for the other books in this series.

I started reading to my daughter when she was 2 weeks old. Our girl is now 6 months- and we bought her Zaydo Potato- Allah Loves me (paperback), and she LOVED it. Truthfully, her eyes did not wander off the pages for the duration of the entire story. She was so into the art and colors, and mom and I were into the message. Very cute and meaningful story. Can't wait for more of this quality work!!

This book is a wonderful Islamic children's book. I loved the beautiful, colorful design and the simple, powerful message.

I really liked this simple yet powerful message of Allah swts love. Great for the whole family. Three more words ;)

I love the title of the series. It's catchy and fun! This first book is a great start to help young readers understand the many reasons why Allah loves them. The author has done a great job in providing plenty of examples of the various blessings Allah grants us, which we unfortunately sometimes take for granted. This is eye opening to the many gifts Allah endows us with. In addition to the beautiful message, the pictures and colors are very pretty and would attract children. It is important that our kids have such books that teach them about their religion and what it means to be a Muslim in the west. Love it!

Love this book! My son loves all the colors and mom loves the theme/story!

Great Islamic children's book! My kids really connected to the character and his adventures. It's heartwarming and fun. Can't wait to read more from this author.
