Customer Reviews

My son uses this for his Trumpet lessons. It is perfect. Arrived quickly so he was even able to use it before the deadline his teacher gave him. Would order again.

My 7-year-old daughter's violin instructor requested my daughter have onhand a manuscript notebook so that the instructor could write music for my daughter to practice. Having it in a spiralbound notebook is far better than loose pieces of blank staves. The book is 64-pages, which is a nice amount because by the time my daughter nears the end of the book, it will be fun to look at what she did in the beginning and see how far she's come. I wasn't sure how many staves there should be (I didn't even know what a stave was), but the instructor was fine with this notebook. The cover is sturdy enough. The page opacity is more than adequate. Overall, a very good purchase for the price.

Exactly what I needed to jot down drum fills and grooves that I either hear or come up with on my own. Can't ask for any better, and it is archival too!

Very practical workbook. Would have been 5 stars if the covers weren't quite so flimsy, but otherwise it's a great product!

Perfect! Hard to find anymore and I now need more! Great shape and fast work!

Exactly as i expected. Not fancy. Simple staves.

It was smaller than I expected.

Perfect for jotting down quick ideas without feeling the pressure of 12 staves.
