It is awesome, I listen to it driving to work, I will buy the whole Bible version soon when financially capable. At first I didn't like some of the characters, Jesus sounds a little monotone at times and Peter sounds arrogant at best at times but compared to plain readings of the word this version draws you into the story and that is why I bought it.

This is the best NT on Audio that I have ever listened to. It's like it's happening right before you. I understand the Bible so much better this way. I highly recommend this set to everyone.

I love these CDs. There's just something about having the Word spoken as if the events were happening in real time that adds so much more to the scriptures. My only negative is that I feel that the chapters should be identified prior to the reading of those chapters, so a listener can remember where he/she left off. We take long trips and love listening to the word while driving, instead of music CDs or radio stations. A wonderful vehicle for God's word, pardon the pun.

I love The Word of Promise. I listen to it, to and from work each day. Daily, my faith in Lord Jesus grows and expands in love. My daily prayer is, "Thank you Lord for the truth, you have saved my life from damnation." May the Word of the Lord open up to you. The Bible is a love story. It is a story of God's great love for his creation, "us." It is also a lesson in History. History is - His Story, how the time evolves around Lord Jesus and his second coming. How time is measured through one person only - Jesus.

How can the Word of God not be wonderful? I love the background sounds and music that go along with the reading of the Word. Some of the "readers" sound more like actors than others, but overall it is fantastic. I have put every book on my iPod and listen to it before I go to sleep each night. I especially like "Matthew's" voice.

I gave you 5 stars because I got the whole new testament for 5 dollars, but it was supposed to be on cassette and I got CDs. I'm still very happy though Amazing acting to the Bible audio series. I enjoyed it very much.
