Founded in 1947, Hal Leonard Corporation has become the worlds largest print music publisher, representing some of the greatest songwriters and artists of all time. We are proud to publish titles of interest to all musicians as well as music lovers, from songbooks and instructional titles to artist biographies and instrument price guides to books about the music industry and all the performing arts.

I teach music reading and improvisation along with theory and composition. This book is perfect for the beginner who is learning to improvise or 'fake' it. Only the treble clef line is given and no harmonies. You must improvise or 'fake' the left hand (and right hand harmonies) using the chord symbols listed above notes (written as C, G7, F, etc.). All songs are written in the key of C meaning there are no sharps or flats IN THE KEY SIGNATURE. Some songs in this book use as little as two chords and less than five treble notes (Mary Had a Little Lamb); yet others are quite advanced for beginners (My Favorite Things). It is a great starting fake book, filled with a variety of songs in various easy levels. As the student learns new notes and chords, they progress to more advanced pieces. Love this book!

I've been playing keyboard for a while but am still just an amateur. These Fake Books are great for beginners but will still be fun to knock around with even for those more experienced. You get a wide selection of music to dabble with, the size makes them easy to read, and the more experienced can add their own flourishes. I also adapt these for the harmonica without much trouble.

Got this spiral bound at Office Depot. Nice fake book!

I just ordered this book to keep on hand for beginning piano students so in addition to traditional lessons, they can learn to use their ears to play and this book gives easy chords to figure that out.

I play improv piano in a restaurant. A little boy asked me for Elmo's Song, and guess what, it's in this book, as well as a lot of other classic songs for kids. I'd recommend everyone have this book in their collections.

I bought this to use in a music program for preschoolers. I love it! The songs are so easy--I can have a new song ready for each day--and the kids love them.

Great product and service.

so far seems brilliant with lots of good and varied stuff
