Bought as a gift for my daughter who leaves for college this fall. She's not really one to read for pleasure but she said she couldn't put this book down! Lots of helpful advice and really put her fears to rest. She said she feels ready for college now and feels like she can handle anything.

I bought two copies of this book as gifts for high school graduates. The book is both funny and pragmatic, full of tips for students entering college. I included an gift card along with the book for each graduate.

Witty, while offering solid advice on your first year of college. Perfect for a male graduate.

Bought it for my little brother, he laughed. It the info in here is really well balanced and varied! On on the funny side, Grama opened the box and thought she had ordered it by accident! LOL!!!

Hilarious as a "gag" grad gift. Very well liked. We spent time reading through it and found most of the info to be pretty good too.

Excellent college advice book! This is a dense tome which is packed with all the college information one could need. The drug section is a bit intense and has no reduction tips, but better safe than sorry I suppose. Good map for the confusing land of college.

Sent this as a gift to two nieces as high school graduation presents. Both said they were enjoying reading it and thought it was funny.

Bought for no ur daughter who will be off to college in August, she loves the book!
