This is THE GUIDE for protocol...some things will never 'go out of style' or be obsolete...this is a guide to correct conduct...yes there is such a thing.

The author, Ernest Mason Satow, wrote a book in 1905 which still nowadays is a masterpiece. In his fifth edition, Lorde Gore-Booth, editor, and Desmond Pakenham, assistant editor, include in this referential book the kind of cartesian information about United Nations that Lorde Mason would consider of deserving all his honours. Read this book must be not so much as a diplomatic decision but a decision of any human being in a diplomatic mission.

Satow's book is the master piece for the "diplomatist" of not only 20th Century but also of the 21st. Satow and his Guide, indeed is the materialisation of the mystic bond that the diplomats of the world have towards each other by virtue of their special profession.
