London To Bath – Walking In Jane Austens Footsteps - Two For One (Travel Books Book 4)

Synopsis

This book provides an authentic look at Bath which will take you on a leisurely walk after arriving at Bath railway station to the Abbey, the Pump Room, up Milsom Street to into the Assembly Rooms where Jane danced in her muslin gowns. Accompany us to the burial place of her parents, then follow our directions and walk to the Circus, to the Jane Austen Centre and to lunch. Then away to her home the other side of Pulteney Bridge where she attended fireworks and breakfasts in a nearby park. The author(s) have taken time to retrace the highways where Jane's feet trod - enticing the reader to visit Bath themselves to capture the experiences of Miss Austen's life in this historic Georgian City. I will send you a free copy of our very own "MICRONUTRIENTS CAN BEAT CANCER" by this same author - released November 2016 - 52 pages of the very latest scientific and medical news how to beat cancers and other illnesses. Look for our email address to claim.
