Mallorca (Rother Walking Guides) (English And German Edition)

Synopsis

Mallorca is not only a primary holiday destination for sun-lovers, but also a true hiking paradise, with lovely valleys, wild, romantic gorges and countless panoramic summits, all in the serene hinterland, tucked away from the seasonally overcrowded coasts. The "other" Mallorca surprises the visitor with a well-developed network of trails, and offers a variety of tours for all demands and levels of difficulty, starting from simple beach walks, to adventurous cliff tours and challenging mountain hikes, up to a spectacular canyon crossing. Rolf Goetz, the author of this Rother hiking guide, is one of the best experts on the Spanish Islands, and, through his various publications, has already made an excellent name for himself. He presents hikers with a wide variety of entertaining tour suggestions, mainly emphasising the wild, chasm-filled Serra de Tramuntana in the Northwest, but also including other island regions. This handy little hiking book, which opens up one of the most popular island hiking destinations in the Mediterranean area, has 65 tour recommendations described in detail, generously illustrated by colour photos, colour map excerpts (scale 1:50,000 and 1:75,000) and height profiles. Every route is provided with comprehensive GPS data, ready for download. Thoroughly-researched introductory chapters with tips on interesting sights and a bus schedule complete this excellent guide, which no traveller should do without. Thus, the 4th edition of this guide remains a reliable companion on all hikes on this diverse island.

Customer Reviews

The book was really useful as we've hiked the island this summer. There were just few moments when the description of the route wasn't quite correct, but it didn't lead to any dramatic consequences - you just use your common sense to find the way. The book is small and very light, has just the necessary comments and some pictures for inspiration. After this one I've purchased few more guides from Rother and I am really looking forward to using those during my new walks.
