Customer Reviews

This was an ok book for teens. although one of the major plot points was a rip off from the George

C. Scott film, The Changeling. This story actually ended at 76% of the book. The rest was preview of other books by the same author. The story itself had potential, but was too short and too neatly tied up in the end. Pretty predictable actually.

I really enjoyed this book. It is creepy enough to be a good ghost story....but not so creepy to make me want to stop reading!! I will be reading more by this author!!

Glad I didn't spend a lot. If it's a cold rainy day and you want to have a hot cup of tea and read you'll finish it in about 2-1/2 hours. Though story itself was OK the "surprise" is something eventually you'll see coming. Publishers obviously don't proofread considering there were misspelled words and misplaced commas. Doubt I'll be buying any further books from this author if they're as short as this one.

It was another one I could not put down. Oh he was so evil he got just what was coming to him. I love a Happy ending.

Great story with a surprising twist. Not what you would think a haunted house story would normally be but a good read.
