Customer Reviews

I guess i should have researched this book a little better. It was mostly ghosts and that kind of weird. I was looking for travel and myths.

great

I bought this as a gift and checked out some of the chapters, interesting but I'm not from Texas so its hard for me to rate it, I will have say what I read was well written and interesting..

These Weird books are good for planning day trips.

Lots of stuff to go and see but the book screams for a map or any kind of localized organization. Maybe I didn't see it but I bought the book to go see stuff, not just read about it. Other than that, it seems okay.

Bought it a year ago and have read it 3 times at least. Fun book for the bathroom or while traveling.

I bought this book for a lady in prison here in Texas. She loved this book and shared it with her fellow inmates who also praise this book. They said it made you want to get out and explore Texas even if you have lived here your entire life. It will be donated to the library at the prison and I have ordered Weird USA and it is on it's way for Christmas along with a few other books.

Cute book but some "facts" by the writer are based on his opinions and not proper research.
