Customer Reviews

The series of these 2 books was without a doubt very engulging. As I first read part 1 I was thinking it would be the story of an abused child by her father. The turn it took made me not want to stop reading. Suspence, drama, her stellar strength to survive and overcome such atrocities at 12 amazed me. Then just as her life was going good the past caught up with her. It was if fate brought her true love back to her and saved her family. I would read it again, and again just feeling the happiness that destiny brought her.

This book did hold my interest. The only reason i gave it a 3 star rating is because i believe it's a book of fiction and not a true story as advertised.
