This is a must for both your home library and your church library. . . . The ideal devotional book for the church musician. (Church Music Report 20040603)Here is a devotional book to get excited about! If you want something fresh and unique, you'll like this. (Baptist Bulletin 20040603)Great for family devotions. (Bill Rayborn Sing 20040603)If you would use this book . . . you will find that you will have a deepening appreciation for our heritage in church music and a greater love for the Savior portrayed and the Scriptures enhanced. (Messenger 20040603)The entire Christian community can and will benefit from [Amazing Grace] This work is not only a marvelous means of personal inspiration, it is also valuable for ministers and teachers who can enrich their leadership with factual stories that prompted the writing of these hymns. I personally recommend this book to ministers, teachers, and to all who want to be uplifted. (Charles H. Rabon South Carolina Baptist Convention 20040603) --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

It is one of the most inspirational books one could possess to be able to read the history of hymns and study the Scriptures that accompany each entry. We have read this book and used it to begin our day with the LORD. We can fully recommend it to any who loves hymns and wants to know the history behind them at the same time use the volume as a devotional guide to begin each day.

Really enjoy this! I don't use it daily but it's nice to have an extra supplement to add to devotions when I want to :)

Absolutely wonderful book for daily devotions and I had an early edition and bought this to give to friends who have little children. I am sad to see the hymns neglected to make way for ditties with limited depth! Anything to encourage the next generation to plant the richness of these words and melodies in their children's hearts. Reach for depth that lasts!!

This book is simply a treasure! It's so good to have a book such as this - when there are times a tune of a certain hymn keeps running through your mind. Or part of the words of a hymn that has a special meaning to you keeps playing over and over in your head, and you wish you could remember all of words. When that happens, now, I pick up this book, find the page it's on, and I'm able to remember all of the tune and lyrics. What a special blessing it is to me! I didn't even know it existed, until my granddaughter-in-law told me about it. She gave me a copy of it, for my very own. Thank You, Lord, for the blessings this book brings to me!

Two basic resource books available to us to ensure our spiritual well-being are the Bible and the church hymnal. This book, Amazing Grace, is a wonderful means of personal inspiration with factual stories that prompted the writing of these hymns. This book would be a great tool to ministers and teachers, and to all who want to be uplifted. It includes 366 inspiring hymn stories for daily devotions.

...or anyone who loves hymns. The devotions are very nice. There are scripture selections (you'll have to keep a Bible handy as they are only referenced, not typed out), a short story of the song, or composer, lyrics to the song, and a few measures of music...not the whole hymn. There is enough space on each page to write a few notes, thoughts, or a prayer. I have purchased several copies as gifts and they've been well received.

I bought this book for my grown children because I have enjoyed it each morning for a couple of years. I sing the songs back to God as part of my morning devotions, so thought they might do the same, even tho they are fond of contemporary Christian music. They were raised on these songs!

Beautiful illustrations and great biographies.
