Customer Reviews

If you wear glasses you will definitely need them to review these flash cards. The scenarios are pretty funny and they do lead you to look at the fact pattern and the law. The answers on the back are not short, so I don't know how anyone getting quizzed on them would actually answer them correctly as each answer is about a paragraph or more. They're okay if you want to spent a lot of time squinting at the answers. You may learn something from them.

Contracts is one of those subjects that can be a completely different experience based on your professor. The preliminary cards were great during the first semester; but, as the material grew more complex, other avenues of studying ended up being more productive.

This is a great study tool.

they are wonderful but i prefer my own because it uses my class notes / outline or formats

Helpful to anyone who is studying contracts.

I'm using them to teach Business Law to community college students. I hear a lot of happy chattering as they read the scenarios. I can easily highlight the part of the answer that is important for them to know so that they don't get bogged down in the details.

Awesome study aid. A must for any law student. The most helpful thing I used to prepare for my exam.

Great resource for my high school Business Law class.
