Customer Reviews

We've all heard the jokes about Penthouse Letters being made up and after reading the first five "letters" in this edition I'm inclined to agree. I find it a little coincidental that all the letters are just about the same length. I'm open minded but the first five stories are too unbelievable even for me, the fifth one about a biker bar being totally disgusting. I've bought other Penthouse Letters and have enjoyed them but I don't know if I can finish this one. Update: (6/04) Since I paid for it I figured I might as well finish it which was difficult to say the least. I can't believe there's so many men out there that want to "share" their wives with other men while they watch and then join in later. I'm kinky but as far as I'm concerned sex is between two people. I've started another book and am crossing my fingers on this one.

It is a good book however, I wonder if these are true stories? Some seem a little "out of reach" but fun to read anyway!

Great stories! Enjoyed it a lot. I suggest this to everyone. Check it out. Great to lay in bed with spouse and read them together

This book was a re-hash of all the other so-so letters I've already read over the years. A reading the other two books, this one left me very disappointed.

It is a nice addition to the Penthouse collection of magazines. It along with Forum provide a collection of letters that are great to read and funny in some places.

Seems ok....I think the magazines are better tho...the stories are shorter and 'sweeter'...with pics. I will not buy again.

GOOD FOREPLAY

make her read it....
