Customer Reviews

this is a great buy for soccer lovers everywhere! It leaves you feeling like you really know Ronaldo!
GET IT! YOU WILL BE BEGGING FOR MORE!

this book was written by an author well known for writing about the NHL, hockey. soccer and hockey are worlds apart, the book seems aimed at american audiences who do not know much about soccer, actually do not know anything about soccer. the book contains no real facts, it is like a summary of ronaldo's life, news i could get off tabloids. what really frustrated me though is how the author keeps calling a shot a punch! if you strike the ball it can be called many things, shot, kick, fired, scored even blasted, but for gods sake not "Punched" punched implies using your hand, nobody used their hands in soccer.....except ofcourse the goalkeeper, which by the way is called goal tender in this book (its the hockey thing i tell you) overall i think i've wasted my money, the book is a disgrace to one of the worlds best strikers, it is written in a horrid way as well, and worse off really has no solid facts, no why, where when. just a brief summary.

A great book!! RONALDO IS FAR MORE BETTER THAN maradona
