I bought this book as a gift for a scholar on Middle Eastern politics while they were living in Jordan. It has proved to be an amazing resource for digging deeper into the art and architecture at most of the major tourist attractions in Jordan. Its setup is based on several itineraries that a traveler could cover during a trip to Jordan and it doesn't have an index but once you get over those issues it is a great book. Very thorough and helpful before, during, and after a trip to a site this book is recommended for all those interested in Jordan and Umayyad art in general.

Worth it's price!
