Customer Reviews

I bought this book a number of years ago, and found myself looking through it today while the snow falls outside my windows in the Litchfield hills. This is a gem of a book for those of you who live in CT, Rhode Island or are planning a visit here and love the outdoors. There is something for everyone if you like to walk in the woods, or love dinosaur prints, or art and all of the above. The Hiistead museum in Farmington gets a nice writeup and is a favorite of mine since it has lovely gardens, the Metacomet trail connects to the property and the museum has a world class art collection which never goes on loan. This is a well researched, thoughtful book that appeals to those who love the outdoors, wildlife and the history both geological and cultural of this area.
