Synopsis

Tourist Trains Guidebook, Sixth Edition describes 500 of the most popular train attractions, museums, and railroad vacation destinations in the U.S. and Canada. A unique travel guide that appeals to train buffs, individuals interested in historic trains and sites, and families looking for kid-friendly vacations. About 80% of the book contains new material in a redesigned easy-to-read format, with individual sites organized by region. The digest book size offers a portable format that fits inside a backpack or tote. Over 200 of the most popular sites are detailed in in-depth reviews written by contributors and staff from the highly regarded publication, Trains magazine. The remaining 300 listings highlight smaller trains, museums, and depots. As passenger train travel enjoys a real renaissance today, a comprehensive railroad travel guide will be a valuable addition to your product line. Tourist Trains Guidebook is the most exhaustive railroad-themed travel guide on the market.

Customer Reviews

Trains magazine Staff and Contributors bring their extensive knowledge and unique insights to the pages of this invaluable railroad-themed travel guide. A trusted publication for over 75 years, Trains is considered the premier railroading magazine in the country.

As train enthusiasts, we were having trouble deciding which excursion railroads to visit on our upcoming vacation. After receiving this book, we found even more great choices. This guide enables us to plan our route for maximum number of railroads per driving mile. The many colorful pictures and detailed descriptions make us want to visit them all. Great reference book!

Really nice source when you want to see live steam or static locomotives. If you're into this kind of stuff, this "is" the right book for you.

A great guide for train museums also!

A must for the traveling rail fan.

Very comprehensive edition, and, Prime got it here just when we needed it ! Sure helps with vacation planning, to figure out what venues we want to visit.

Love having train trips at our fingertips. For us no vacation is complete without a train trip! Would love to visit all!
