New Directions For Strings Violin Book 1

Synopsis

The FJH Music Company is proud to present New Directions for Strings, the first string orchestra method book written by a team of pedagogues representing each of the four stringed instruments. With more than 100 years of combined teaching experience, the authors of New Directions for Strings explore many new directions, including equal integration of all the instruments, a tetrachord-based approach to support proper development of the left hand, and ensemble opportunities that occur throughout the book. Supplemental music by Soon Hee Newbold and Elliot Del Borgo. Includes 2 Play-Along CDs.

Customer Reviews

My 6 year old is learning how to play violin from this book at his school. I decided to buy it so he can practice ahead of the class. It's an excellent book for all ages. I'm actually learning how to play violin with it myself as well.

I love using this series with my elementary students. They enjoy the illustrations and color-coding at the beginning of the book. The song choice keeps them engaged and moves them quickly through skills they need to learn. I used to use a different series and the students would hate having to wait so long to start the bow. I like that this book starts the bow sooner.

This book has given me the motivation to practice. My teacher is very happy with me and I am enjoying my lessons with much pride!! I love the lesson selections for each skill.

great book to learn the basics of how to play the violin.

Perfect for my lessons

We bought this to go with string lessons with our school district. While the book seemed nice, we didn't even crack it because they shared stands and it was also easier to share a book. I recommend finding a friend to practice with and share a stand with as it is cheaper and more motivating for practice.

excellent

Perfect! Thank you!
