Dunn & Haimann's Healthcare Management

Synopsis

The way a supervisor handles the managerial aspects of the job makes the difference between running the department and being run by the department. Now in its tenth edition, Dunn and Haimann's Healthcare Management continues to provide readers with the information and tools they need to understand and keep pace with the vast changes occurring in healthcare management today. Although the text builds its framework around the core functions of management planning, organizing, staffing, influencing, and controlling key topics relating to the Affordable Care Act (ACA), new technologies for managers and medical staffs, and a savvier customer base are also addressed. This updated edition includes new glossary terms reflecting the ACA and other recent industry changes, as well as:

- A discussion of social media as an internal and external communications tool, with guidelines for setting appropriate boundaries on social media use
- Enhanced coverage of planning processes, including benchmarking and maintaining a data repository with input from various applications and systems
- Expanded treatment of budgeting tools, including the rolling and grow budget techniques
- A discussion of capital expenditure requests, incorporating return on investment (ROI) and the payback period as a capital ROI budgeting approach
- Information on Peter Senge's entrepreneurial management theory and an expanded discussion of contingency theory
- Updated information on personnel-related regulations, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, Family and Medical Leave Act rules, and Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act penalties

Rose T. Dunn, MBA, RHIA, CPA, FACHE, FHFMA, has been in healthcare management for more than 40 years. She started her career as the director of health information management services at Barnes Hospital immediately following graduation from Saint Louis University. She was later promoted to vice president. After 13 years at Barnes, Dunn became the assistant vice president in Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's HMO subsidiary. Following this position, she served as the chief financial officer of a dual-hospital system. In 1988, Dunn started a consulting firm, First Class Solutions, Inc.SM, which has now grown to serve health providers and third-party payer clients nationwide. She is the chief operating officer of First Class Solutions, based in Maryland Heights (St. Louis), Missouri.

A very good text book. The chapters are short and to the point. The summaries at the end of each chapter is very good. It contains easy to understand information about an organization or for anyone who will be promoted to a leadership position in the future. I will recommend.

Pretty good read. The book is thick and can be intimidating to look at but not bad at all. Good info.
