Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED Celeste finds herself promised in marriage to a wealthy stranger, a cattle baron from Texas whom she has never met. She appeals to her father and ailing mother, she doesn't want this marriage, but they are not to be swayed. It is with a heavy heart that she joins the convoy dispatched by her fiancé to chaperone her to the ranch where she is to spend the rest of her days, and where she will at last meet her husband-to-be. The only token she retains of her life up to now, is her maid, Marianne. Paul Jackson looks to be just a cowboy with saddlebags heavy with money, not the wealthy Texan cattle baron he is. His dealings are crooked and his conscience is lacking. Sean Murphy is on the trail of the gang who absconded under the cover of night from Camp Nighthawk with two horses. He undertook to return little Sara's beloved white mare to her, and he's not planning on breaking his promise, whatever the cost. Celeste and Marianne's cross country journey is unexpectedly eventful. The paths of these hitherto unconnected individuals unwittingly entwine to form the tapestry of what is to become their intricately woven futures.

Customer Reviews

A must read about a young lady who believes in love is shipped off to marry a man she doesn't know by her Father who always spoiled her. The man she was to marry was not well liked and she had to travel by wagon to get to him. A special story from a special author and from at a special price.

I will be totally honest this book was very hard to get into! It seemed it was back and forth between Sara and Celeste. I just couldn't really get interested in it. I finished it but was not impressed by it at all.
