Synopsis

Tiffani Tidwell is a well established real estate agent in the demanding Bay Area market. Although she's been able to make her mark in her professional life, she hasn't been able to keep an anchor on her marriage with her successful husband Marcel. After entertaining her feelings yet again, she finds out some bad news that forces her to make a hard decision. What is she going to do?

Customer Reviews

Don't remember how much I paid for this book but no matter how little it was, it wasn't worth it. Much too short & ended just as the story was ramping up. Ridiculous! Would never read another one of this author's offerings.

Very good read. I went through 1000 emotions. I definitely want to know what happens next! Circa 1997-98 when I attended college in east Oakland. I experienced so much Nostalgia. The scenery, food, everything about this book was awesome.
