I love this cook book. Easy recipes to make, but yet I feel like a gourmet cook when making them. The recipes are also delicious. I couldn't wait to make them and it was amazing that I wanted to make them all. Also, most of the ingredients I already had in my cabinets so it made it even easier. So far I have made the; Apple and onion pork loin -- twice, it was delicious. I also made the Mongolian Beef -- twice, my family loved it. The Mango Salsa Tilapia was also a big hit with my family. The butter and herb corn on the cob turned out perfect. It was buttery and the flavor was great. I also made the pizza-stuffed spaghetti squash. What a unique, healthy and wonderful idea. We loved it!

We have to follow strict eating habits in my house do to good allergies and this cookbook has been amazing. The fact that Hope adds in lil notes & substitutions has been so helpful. Honestly the best part of this cookbook is that Hope concentrated on every day ingredients. So these recipes are not only easy they family friendly.

Wonderful but for one aspect... I was hoping for more easy-to-prepare meals. I don't enjoy cooking but love food, so any recipe that just says "throw all the ingredients in and wallah!" the happier I am. More work than I wanted but great recipes!

Interesting variations on old favorites. First recipe tried was the Zesty Pulled Pork Tacos. They were a huge hit with my husband and kids. Leftovers made tummy nachos! All recipes include variations and/or suggestions for leftovers and side dishes.

I have tried seven recipes now, and all of them have been really disappointing.

Love this cookbook! We have been struggling to find gluten free recipes that don't take an hour to make. This is a great collection of recipes that the whole family enjoyed.

Great book for the Gluten-Free person.

Absolutely amazing and super easy recipes. And gluten free too. It doesn't get better or my life easier.
