Anne Catherine Emmerich was born to poor parents at Westphalia, Germany in 1774. When she was twenty-eight years old she became an Augustinian nun at Dulmen, and apparently began to experience ecstasies as a result of spiritual favors. She received the Stigmata in 1813, confined to her bed, and reportedly convinced a vicar-general, Overberg, and three physicians of her sanctity. She later reported that she had seen visions of Christ and the souls in purgatory as a child, as well as a circular core with three sections representing the Trinity. She is the author of The Dolorous Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ, The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Life of Jesus Christ and Biblical Revelations, and The Bitter Passion and the Life of Mary. Anne Emmerich died on February 9, 1824 and was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2004.

I am still reading Volume 1 of 4, but the level of detail in the visions of Sister Emmerich is astounding. It provides so much context around the stories in the Bible. As a lifelong Catholic, I feel like reading this is almost as good as using a time machine and visiting moments in Biblical history. This will take a long time to read and process, but definitely worth it for anyone that wishes they knew more about what actually took place as these events unfolded.

After reading these books on my iPad via the Kindle app, I just HAD TO HAVE the printed version. And - FINALLY - here they are! The books arrived so well packaged, pristine, and beautifully bound in soft covers. Now, I can re-read important sections easily. However, the drawings are not included in the printed version, which I had so looked forward to seeing - like the Blessed Virgin's hair design for her wedding and Joseph's wedding clothes. Oh, well, I still love these books, as there is nothing else out there containing this information, which I had long sought. I'm very happy with these wonderful books. , you carry the most incredible books and other things that are available nowhere else - thanks!!!

If you want the stories behind the story, this is the one. If you want the story of the greatest love affair of the Bible, namely the Blessed Mother and St Joseph, this is the one. These volumes will fill many holes in the stories we've been given over the years. This is end result of 15-years of apparitions to Sister Emmerich by Our Lord and His Blessed Mother and another 6-years dictating to Clemens Brentano who was a Monk at the time. I gained a greater, clearer understanding of the lives of the Holy Family. Reading this book the Holy Family became real and alive for me for the first time.

I am almost done reading book I and am looking forward to completing the 4 book set, a few pages per day. The books are so well written and spell binding that Mel Gibson used them for his movie, "The Passion", which is the most authentic movie evermade about Jesus' Passion. Even Pope Benedict, when asked for his opinion of the movie said, "It is as it was".

I saw these books in a store for $100 for the set. (I paid about $65 online) I had read the author's book on the life of the Blessed Vlrigin Mary. I really liked them. I had been impressed that most of the content in the book about Mary was documented by a team of scholars and priests, so that even though it is a private revelation, it is compared with what we know about history from other sources and ancient writings. I have just started reading this set, and am equally impressed. However, this set does not have the footnotes that the book on Mary's life does. I would recommend these books to anyone who wants to know more about Christ's life.

I cannot say enough good things about this (4) volume of "The Life of Jesus Christ" I have not finished reading all the books as of yet, but the first book I read, I couldn't put it down. St. Anne Catherine Emmerich books make you feel as though you are right there within the scene. Every detail is described in detail so you learn more in-depth as to what really happened and how all the people thought. What a wonderful Blessing God has given us in revealing His life through the revelations of St. Anne Emmerich. This series of books is a "Must Read".

Blessed Catherine Anne Emmerich, saw the life of Christ as it occurred from the time she was a child. These books were written in the mid 1800's in German, and then lost to publication for nearly 100 years. This set is amazing, in terms of both it's detail and the information that is not found elsewhere. A thanks to a friend, Fr. Edwin for telling me that I needed to read more if I really wanted to consider myself a Christian. These writings along with the other two books that were recorded by a local scholar @ the time; are incredible for the amount of detail and insight.

Serious problem with delivery. Material itself amazing and it's more than I could hope for. BUT only Volume 4 was delivered! When I wrote sender it was explained the other 3 volumes were unavailable. I could have requested refund or kept the single volume, which I did. Subsequent ordering from another source has been equally frustrating. Alibris is checking into why I only received volume 3 from them! Very irritating. Seems to me that payment should not have been accepted before ALL of the order confirmed sent!
