Garfield Listens To His Gut: His 62nd Book

Synopsis

Think Big! Get Big!

after a long hiatus from the series. As a kid I religiously collected all of Garfield's books. After about the 30th, I stopped and looking back I found that some of the material seemed rehashed and a bit bland to be honest. Other strips seem to be a rehash of previous books, (same kinda jokes) and as a long time Garfield fan I was disappointed. Yeah, I still collected the books but held very low expectations. This was a step in the right direction for the series, the incorporation of Liz as a main character for the last three books, and some noticeably newer comedy situations leaves me with hope that Garfield has got his act together. I'll be buying the newest book in June 14! Don't disappoint Garfield.

This item was purchased as a gift, so I can't comment on the contents. I imagine it would appeal to fans of the Garfield comic.

The fat cat rolls on in his 62nd outing. Funny as always. Nuff said.

Great!

I really enjoyed this book. Well worth the price. I would recommend this book to any needing a good laugh.

I own every Garfield comic collection... this is just one more in a great cat's life..

I LOVE Garfield and all of his books. Seller is VERY reliable

My father in law loves it. He reads to my 4 yr old. Perfect
