These books are amazing. My son started reading these when he was six and now he's eight and still going strong with this series. It's awesome to see him read a 300 page book and be excited about it!

For my daughter who reads it all the time and really seems to love it. She's 9 and just entering 4th grade.

My 8 year old son has read all of the Geronimo Stilton Kingdom of Fantasy books and loves them all

We purchased this for my son's kindle app and were very happy that it is just like the hardbound book with all the crazy lettering and pictures. While the book displays small in horizon format it displays the pages perfectly in the vertical setting on his android tablet. He dived right in to reading it with a fervor. I love these books for him as they are the first books my son has ever shown a desire to read without being reminded and he finishes them. Then he tells me in great detail about the story when he's finished that I almost don't have to read it to know it. The Geronimo stilton books, while being great stories, also expose my son to a lot more large vocabulary words than other books at this grade level. I love that, and of course, they are just fun to read.

My 8 year old son loves these books. He is not too excited about reading, but he is reading these fantasy series rather quick. I can tell he really likes them because he doesn't ask if "reading time" is over. He keeps on reading. If other parents have a boy who likes fantasy, I recommend this series. I also recommend the graphic novels of The Amulet. My son actually kept asking for the next books and read them each in one sitting. Both series are excellent and very magical. I'm so glad to finally find something that keeps my child's interest!

I purchased this for my son, who is 6, as he has been reading for 3 years now, and he LOVES it! He loves this series, and after looking through this book myself, I highly recommend it. It has vivid, bright illustrations that are really nice, and various colored fonts throughout the chapters, rather than the standard type print. There are pictures on almost every page, and the books in this series are scattered with activities, recipes, etc. This is by far one of the best children's series I have discovered for my children. Now my 5 yr old daughter has started reading them because my son has been so enthusiastic about them! He reads one or two of these in a day, and keeps re-reading them...highly recommend! Lovely quality book pages and binding as well...

My 4th grade daughter loves these books!

Great
