Susan Hagen Nipp received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Whitworth College, in Spokane, Washington. She has taught high school English, and music on the elementary school level. She lives in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, with her husband Charlie. They have two children. Pamela Conn Beall received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in music and a minor in education from Oregon State University. After college, she became an elementary school music teacher in the Portland area. she currently resides in Lake Oswego, Oregon, with her husband Ron. They have four children.

I had this in cassette form when I was a kid and STILL have the songs memorized! I bought this for an Xmas gift for my 6yo cousin and he is a happy camper!

Grandkids loved this book and CD. Makes a very nice gift for a small child. Because it is a CD, it would make a good item to take on a car ride, too.

My daughter loves the songs and I love the book that comes with it! Perfect for our silly story unit!

This is the third Wee Sing CD I've bought. My daughter's enjoy the music and I find myself following along as well.

My mother bought this for me when I was in 3rd grade and my brother was in pre-school. We both loved it and would listen to it almost every day. I'm now in my 30's and I still remember some of the songs. I recently purchased it for my 6yr old nephew. Most if not all of the same songs I remember as a child but in more modern packaging. I think a lot of the songs are fun for a wide age range of kids. The book could be more colorful and appealing to younger kids. Even if they couldn't read it they could look at pics. Older kids that can read will enjoy having the words to read a long to and even the musical notes to play.

We play in the car for our great granddaughter on her way to and from school. She loves it.

Haven't heard all the songs, but some seem to be a bit religious. Wasn't looking for that at all.

grandkids love it. We play it in the car and sing to it whenever they are with me.
