If I asked you to list the games you played as a child, or the people you've kissed, a colorful assortment of memories would surface that are unique to you. Many of us don't have the time or inclination to write our autobiography, so I created the Listography Books and listography.com to help capture all the experiences that make up your life: a sweet little time capsule. ã ã I've rediscovered many lost memories by making lists, and I'm glad I found them. Now that they're in my lists, they'll never be lost to me, and I am creating a map of my experience here on earth. The meditative process of making a list reminds us of how beautiful the details of our life are, and it can inspire us, but most importantly, it's fun!

Lisa Nola is the creator of the Listography Book series and the popular list-making website, listography.com.

Bought this for a friend who likes making lists. Haven't given it to him yet, so that's why I gave it 4 stars. It's sturdy and the illustrations are creative and beautiful. I included some pictures to show the pages and the size of the book. There are around 75 different ideas for which to make lists. There are also about 10 blank, lined pages in the back for your own ideas.

The whole Listography series is a real treat for anyone who enjoys journaling, filling things out, and now: music!! I'd flipped through the book once at a local Barnes & Nobles, and only recently picked it up, simply because I couldn't stop thinking about how neat the idea was. There are about 70 lists in here, and every list has 20 lines to give your answers on. Things like these are excellent to fill out (possibly date your answers so you can remember when you did a particular list/answer) and come back and see if you've changed at all. In ten years, wouldn't it be fun to think "How could I possibly think that song was about me?" in regards to the list of songs you call your theme songs? You won't be able to fill it all out immediately, which gives it more value, as you can keep returning to it out as time goes on. Unless you've met 20 rock stars already, that could be blank forever or just begging to be visited when you get the chance. Get it for your friends, you can all compare answers! Music taste says a lot about a person, and not just rock music gets a nod. You can list your favourite rappers, and jazz songs. Your guilty pleasures in music, and best songs of the 60's, 70's, 80's and 90's. All lists are accompanied by brilliant caricatures of musicians the artist maybe liked themselves, too. Buy it if you've got some spare time every now and then, and love music!

Anyone who loves music will have a lot of fun with this journal. It will be difficult to come up with a select few favorites of some categories, but that is part of the fun. Between my husband and I, we spent hours one evening recollecting favorite songs, memories, films and more just because of this thought-provoking music journal. It's nothing serious, but it's fun and interesting. A GREAT gift for a music lover you know. More importantly it would make a great keepsake to pass down to your children or grandchildren. There are many categories, sure to please most. The cover is substantial as are the pages. They will not tear or wear down easily. The book is filled with fun illustrations for each category. I'm going to purchase more for gift-giving.

This is a great book! I bought a copy for my teenager who loves music. When I looked at it I started coming up with my own lists in my head so I ordered a copy for myself and my husband too. It brings back such wonderful (and some not so wonderful, but still worth remembering) memories. I love the Listography series and this is my favorite to date.

I associate so many memories with songs that were popular at the time. This helps organize those as well as gets you thinking about other music lists like your top 20 favorite songs, the best concerts you have ever been to, your perfect make-out mix tape, your obscure music discoveries, etc.

This Listography is so awesome. I bought it as a birthday gift for a friend and they loved it. Only issue I had was that I had to re-order it 3 times because the journal would arrive with a bent corner. But other than that, it's a cool journal and it's great for gift giving.

Love this book! It is so much fun - its perfect for anyone over 15 - and it will take many sessions and hours to fill it out. There is enough space to return to the book to add to it whenever you think of another song/album/artist. You don't need to be a music buff to enjoy. If you ever listened to the radio, you'll love it. I did use internet searches to refresh my memory - but I've got 5 decades of music to remember - and it was fun to hear my favorite music again. This book will help you add so many favorites your iTunes account. I have several listography books and love them all!

This was a Christmas gift for my younger sister, she told me she wasn't sure if she's ever seen so many different ways to make a list, but she can now organize her music notebook in to different lists in this journal!
