I took a stab in the dark and bought coloring books and a huge set of gel pens for two of my grandsons for Christmas; they both loved them and their parents enjoy the quiet time. I highly recommend that parents and/or grandparents provide this activity for their children and if the family is spiritually involved the children enjoy the coloring books with a spiritual theme.

This is more of a pamphlet. It would be good for a series of Sunday School lessons for young children. It didn't fit what I was looking for; but, I can see it's purpose.

very skimpy coloring book - not more than 12 pages. Has the traditional Christian message, just not enough of it. I've seen better online for free downloads. I don't think it is worth the money personally. I originally bought this for use in my Sunday school class, but there aren't enough pages to go around!!!

Disappointing, as figures are too small and detailed for small children. Story also pretty much focused on sin, not the best message for very small children.

I guess I should have read the description better. There are 6 pages in this coloring book. I thought the envelope was empty when it arrived. It is like something you would get for free...now I know that it was just a $1.99 But I should have saved my money on this one!

Kind of short and hard to color.

I bought these for Operation Christmas Boxes. I'm sure the children will love them!!

I didn't realize how few pages the book would have when i ordered it. But it has great pictures and my 2 year old has enjoyed coloring in it.
