Fighting Attraction: Redemption Series, Book 4

Synopsis

Rampage. Everyone loves him. He is Redemption's top heavyweight fighter and the biggest gossip in the gym. But he isn't the teddy bear everyone thinks he is. He's hiding a dark secret - and he hates himself for it. Twice a week, Rampage transforms into Master Jack, a notorious Dom only the most hard-core submissives will play with. How can he - a Southern gentleman, bred to respect and protect women - want to dominate them? But Penny Worthington wants him. Beneath her pearls, kitten heels, and prim British exterior beats a tortured heart - and Master Jack is the only one who can set her free.

MAY CONTAIN SPOILERS - Couldn't really get into this book. Rampage - AKA Jack - has the hots for British babe Penny but believes Penny is the exact opposite of him & his "kind". She is sweetness & light, delicate & feminine, soft & pretty. Definitely not the girl for him. When she spots Master Jack at work in Club Sin she knows they are kindred spirits. In the end their kink didn't exactly match. You can't just broadly say - I like pain with my pleasure, you like pain with your pleasure, we're soulmates! Jack has been disowned because of his honesty about what he likes in the bedroom. Penny's story is completely different since she uses pain to release the heartache she has been made to endure over & over again. I definitely preferred the first few books that balanced a MMA fighter's career with his real-life job with plenty of hot sex. I didn't find this kind of kink hot at all.

I am a big fan of this series. I've enjoyed all the books and characters. The books are written well and I think have good storylines. Penny and Jack's story was a little emotional and heartbreaking. They both had been betrayed and hurt. I am so glad they found what they were looking for and needing in each other. I still really like Ray. He's something special. I really hope there are more books to come.

I have enjoyed each book in this series. Jack and Penny each have a dark side that they are hiding. They find in each other a way to cope with their demons. Can't help but fall in love with each of these fighters and their women. An easy enjoyable read.

Both penny and Jack have deeper issues do throughout the book while fighting an attraction to each other they are battling those demons so that maybe they can be together. I enjoyed this story.

Wow Rampage and Penny were a great couple! I started this series with the fourth book. I can't wait to read the first 3 in this series.

Penny is the last person you'd expect Rampage to hook up with. But both of them hide deep dark secrets. And those secrets make them right for each other. Not the hahaha laugh out loud funny that Against The Ropes and In Your Corner were, but it had its moments. It was fun to see Blade Saw finally find someone, and to see Ray's domestic side. Highly recommended.

Rampage was a sweetheart! I love Penny too. Her comebacks are epic. I thought the "Am I good enough, Am I not good enough", back and forth was a little repetitious but a great story nonetheless!

This series is amazing. These guy's are so real. They are all awesome. Finding love and a soul mate is amazing. They were both broken but they fixed each other. Bring on the rest
