Customer Reviews

Finding out at 24 years old that I am starting to develop early signs of Rosacea is pretty scary! I hear all of the horror stories of the effects it has on your skin and the expense of the medication to be able to help treat those signs and symptoms. Discovering this cook book has changed my life! I can eat healthy foods that diminish the awful effects of rosacea and still workout in the gym without looking like a hot red pepper with bumps all over my face. So far I've tried the breakfast muffins and smoothies and they taste and make me feel amazing. Highly recommended:)
